

Evaluating My Work Ethic

Work Ethic Important Actions

Diligence is: _____

Dependability is: _____

Responsibility is: _____

Accountability is: _____

Consider the statements below

Rank each one, in accordance to your own work ethic. Use the definitions above to help you.

Diligence

Do you work hard to do your best on school assignments, even when they're difficult?

Never Seldom Sometimes Usually Always

When you're supposed to be working at school or home, do you instead do other things, such as talk to friends or play on your phone?

Never Seldom Sometimes Usually Always

Dependability

Can your friends and family rely on you to follow through on your commitments?

Never Seldom Sometimes Usually Always

Do you do your part on group projects at school?

Never Seldom Sometimes Usually Always

Consider the statements below

Rank each one, in accordance to your own work ethic. Use the definitions above to help you.

Responsibility

Do you turn your assignments in on time?

Never Seldom Sometimes Usually Always

Do you complete your chores without being reminded or arguing with your parents?

Never Seldom Sometimes Usually Always

Accountability

If you have a conflict with a friend or family member, do you apologize for your part in it?

Never Seldom Sometimes Usually Always

If a group member calls you out for not doing your part in a group project, do you admit your mistake and try to do better?

Never Seldom Sometimes Usually Always

Work Ethic Scenarios Activity

You will be presented with a total of four different workplace-conflict scenarios. Read each scenario carefully. Afterwards, react to the scenario appropriately and select AT LEAST two of the four work ethic components (diligence; dependability; responsibility; accountability) to identify in your reaction. The goal is to think through your reactions to ensure they are appropriate and demonstrate work ethic.

Scenario #1: Not-so-friendly Competition

How you will react:

My reaction shows _____ by:

My reaction shows _____ by:

Scenario #2: Team Work Makes the Dream Work

How you will react:

My reaction shows _____ by:

My reaction shows _____ by:

Scenario #3: Substitute Teacher

How you will react:

My reaction shows _____ by:

My reaction shows _____ by:

Scenario #4: Helping Hand

How you will react:

My reaction shows _____ by:

My reaction shows _____ by:

My Work Ethic Reflection

Why is it important to show all 4 work ethic actions in the workplace?

What is one way you could improve in showing all 4 of these actions in the workplace?