

Going On a Job Hunt!

Do Now: Reflect on the self-evaluation and personality inventory assessments that you have completed to answer the questions below (complete sentences!).

Why is it important to research a career at this point in your life?

Is the career you are interested in now going to be the career you end up with?

Why is it important to be open-minded about choosing a career?

Questions About Your Future Career: Write down AT LEAST three questions that you have about one of the careers/career pathways that you were given.

1.

2.

3.

Career Research: Try to find as much information as you can about each of the following topics/questions. This is the information that will go into your brochure.

Name of Career: _____

National Average Salary: _____

Idaho Average Salary: _____

What types of courses do you need to take in high school to prepare for this career?

What types of courses do you need to take in college to prepare for this career?

Are there certain colleges that specialize in this occupation? Which ones?

On average, how much is college going to cost you? _____

What is a basic overview/summary of this career?

On a large scale, how would you be helping people (or the world)?

What would you be doing on a daily basis for this career (i.e. daily tasks and responsibilities)?

What are some businesses you can work at in the Boise area? Would you have to move to another state?

What are some skills you need to do this career?

What are some aptitudes you need for this career?

Why did you choose this career to research?

After completing the research, would you still consider this as a career path for you?