

SAT/ACT Prep Worksheet

Follow along with the presentation answering the following questions to help you remember to be prepared for the up and coming college admission exams.

1. When is the Schoolwide SAT? _____

2. Should students take both the SAT and ACT?
 - ☐ a. Yes, as colleges will usually take either scores for admission and scholarships
 - ☐ b. No, they are the same test pretty much so no point in doing so
 - ☐ c. The SAT is easier so don't take the ACT
 - ☐ d. No, as most colleges won't take the ACT

3. Name one difference between the SAT and ACT? _____

4. Where do you register to take the SAT for an additional time not at your school?
 - ☐ a. Online at Actstudent.org
 - ☐ b. The counseling office
 - ☐ c. Online at collegeboard.org
 - ☐ d. At a college

5. Where do you register to take the ACT?
 - ☐ a. Online at myact.org
 - ☐ b. The counseling office
 - ☐ c. Online at collegeboard.org
 - ☐ d. At a college

6. Who can I talk to and/or get more information about test prep for college admission exams?

- ☐ a. College Recruiter
- ☐ b. High School Counselor (Guidance and/or College and Career Staff)
- ☐ c. Websites/Online (Ex. Khan Academy)
- ☐ d. All of the above

7. Should students take the test more than once?

- ☐ a. Typically no, as what would be the point
- ☐ b. Not if a student aced the test the first time which is very rare
- ☐ c. Typically yes, as stats show most students will score higher
- ☐ d. B and C

8. What should I bring to the entrance exams for testing?

- ☐ a. Sharpened pencils and eraser
- ☐ b. Calculator (optional but highly advised)
- ☐ c. Snacks
- ☐ d. All of the Above

9. What are college admission exams used for (SAT/ACT)?

- ☐ a. University Admittance and College Scholarships
- ☐ b. Placement into College English and Math Classes
- ☐ c. To torture students
- ☐ d. A and B